ABOUT

Look Closer

Canadian vocalist and songwriter Iain Mannix was raised on a steady diet of musicals and Madonna. Mannix found his voice during the long car rides following his parents' split where music on the road was a consistent comfort.

After crossing paths with acclaimed vocalist and producer Veela, Mannix was encouraged to begin writing EDM toplines before eventually recording his own songs.

Currently, Mannix is actively mining years of unreleased material as he builds toward his debut album. Off the mic, he remains deeply rooted in his local drag scene working as a photographer and editor.

WHERE ARE YOU FROM?

Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

WHAT PUT YOU ON THE MAP?

Probably featuring on "Clearly" by Electro-Light.

DESCRIBE YOUR MUSIC IN VISUAL FORM.

A corner store candy aisle under fluorescent lights at 2 am.

WHY MAKE MUSIC?

I love singing. I'm always singing and writing is addicting.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN MUSIC RIGHT NOW?

Everything's getting shorter, faster, and more algorithm friendly.. so obviously I'm over here tacking 2 minute long outros onto songs.

WHAT'S THE POWER OF MUSIC?

Music can create a kind of monoculture, where people with completely different lives all know the same song. I think that's magical.

MAY 1, 2026 / SINGLE + REMIX PROJECT

EVERY LITTLE STEP

feat. Vindit & dni

An anthem about long distance relationships.
Produced by NOSLO + Vindit

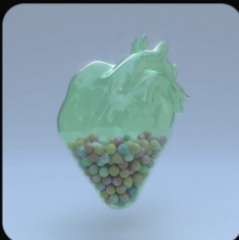

"Every Little Step" was a demo I wrote with NOSLO, originally conceived as a life affirming anthem of sorts. As Vindit, dni, and I collaborated from different parts of the world, it became a track about long distance relationships and the small steps we take to make it work.

Following its initial release, the song received four official remixes. Starting with a house remix by Hardware Cop, a hard-chopped flip by betilla, an exclusive VIP mix from NOSLO, and a vibrant '80s synth-pop rework by Seth Nova.

TOO MANY PIECES
